

MOTION: Adding CVPA-266 to Core Curriculum (Global Perspectives & Visual and Performing Arts)

REFERRED BY: Faculty Senate Executive Council

MOTION

The Faculty Senate recommends approving the new course, CVPA-266: Travel Study in Visual and Performing Arts, for Core Curriculum credit in the areas of Visual and Performing Arts (University Core B & College Core B) and Global Perspectives (College Core A). [The course proposal is available on the Faculty Senate webpage.]

RATIONALE

As the voice of the faculty, and consistent with University internal governance policies, the Faculty Senate has the authority to approve new courses for inclusion in the Core Curriculum. This course has been reviewed and approved by the College of Visual and Performing Arts Curriculum Committee, the Dean of the College of Visual and Performing Arts, and the General Education Curriculum Advisory Committee.
