

MOTION: University Core Course CORE 202
Referred by: Curriculum Committee

Motion

The Faculty Senate approves the proposed CORE 202 (Ethical Topics in Written and Oral Communication) for inclusion into the University Core A component of the Core Curriculum program. [The course proposal is available on the Faculty Senate webpage.]

Rationale

As the voice of the faculty, and consistent with University internal governance policies, the Faculty Senate is responsible for approving new courses for inclusion into Radford University's Core Curriculum. The proposal for CORE 202 (Ethical Topics in Written and Oral Communication) has been approved by the General Education Curriculum Advisory and the Core A Committees, and is consistent with the standards and goals specified by the Faculty Senate.
