

Motion

This is a motion from the Faculty Senate Executive Council:

The Faculty Senate recommends that classes taught online or by other distributed education methods be authorized to administer student evaluations online during the 2010-2011 academic year.

Rationale

Several departments teach classes online. In such cases there is no classroom-based mechanism that exists for the administration of student evaluations in these classes.