

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS COMMITTEE
FEBRUARY 17, 2010

Robert Lineberg Absent

Robbie Davis Reported on the GSR (Graduate Success Rate) and explained the difference between the GSR and the Fed Rate. GSR factors out Transfers who leave in good academic standing. Fed Rate is Scholarship athletes only. Distributed a GSR report for 1999-2002 by individual sport.

Stephanie Ballein NCAA is focusing on Samaritan's Feet – whereby children with no shoes get shoes. Samaritan's Feet is working to get shoes to children in Haiti. SACC will be selling wristbands with RU Pride on them – red or white – for $1 each. RU is stressing pride and good sportsmanship. The wristbands will be available at all sporting events this spring as well as at a table in the Bonnie periodically. Stephanie will be meeting with the SGA to see if they would be willing to participate in the sale and will also be meeting with the manager of the Bookstore to see if it is possible to have them for sale there as well.

The Athletic webpage will soon be up with 100 greatest moments – in support of the Centennial.

Elizabeth Ton Absent but sent e-mail stating “Homecoming will be in full swing this weekend – we had about full reservation retention despite the change in the date. Online reservation closes today or call the alumni office.”

Susan Miller In reference to the January meeting, Susan stated it was the Volleyball Club team that was in the gym when rugby was attempting to practice there.

Donald Samson In reference to the Tartan article regarding the ten-year plan, he was concerned there was no mention of the covered tennis courts. Also referring to the January meeting when it was stated someone was looking at the Field Hockey field and working on the funding – Don wanted to know who the “someone” was. It was explained to him that Kelly Underwood is the person who is in charge of all athletic fundraising. Kelly is in his first year here, but is making great strides.

Bill Dalton Follett came in November and has taken over the bookstore. They are anxious to work with any organization who comes to discuss items with them. They are set up to do all manner of things for the Homecoming.

Rhonda Mah Absent

Steve Teresi Johnathan Haskins, Athletic Promotions Coordinator for SGA was filling in for Steve today. No report. He will also speak to Chrissie Benton to be sure there is no conflict for her to attend meetings.

Chrissie Benton Absent

Betty Dore Still some concern over managers not wearing rubber gloves when cleaning floor or student athletes when bodily fluids are present. Will begin setting up for exit interviews for seniors in swimming, volleyball, soccer (men's and women's) and field hockey. As soon as the basketball season has finished, will administer the NCAA survey to both men's and women's basketball players.

Next meeting: Wednesday, March 31, Place TBA
